Explanation of Responses:

1. On October 25, 2004, contrary to its limited discretionary authority, the investment manager of the reporting person's family trust account sold 5,000 shares held in such account. On January 28, 2005, also contrary to its limited discretionary authority, the investment manager repurchased 5,000 shares for deposit into the family trust account. Both the sale and the purchase were neither initiated by the reporting person, or by the other trustee of the family trust, nor made known to either of them at the time.
